Parent Covenant to attend Weekly Mass

I understand my responsibilities both as a Catholic and as a parent to attend Mass on a weekly basis. In signing this form, I am making a commitment to maintain our current weekly attendance at Mass or, if we are not currently doing so, to begin to attend Mass weekly together with my children and prayerfully to seek the help and grace of God to keep my commitment.

Religious Education & Parental Partnership

In partnership with you as parents, we will do our best to support you with the following responsibilities:

- Truly make your child's religious education a family priority. Our relationship with God is key to everything we are, have and aspire to be. When families can make room to honor God, the rest of life falls into place for us. Christ says: "I came that they might have life, and might have it abundantly." (John 10:10)
- Work with your children, not only modeling faith but also talking about it and praying as a family regularly.
- See that your children participate at weekly Mass and help them to develop a sense of stewardship (giving back to their faith community.)
- See that your children attend all class sessions and large group events, arriving on time and not leaving early.
- Attend sacramental preparation meetings and other meetings that are required.
- Make an appointment with the director if there are more than three absences.
- Make your children's Religious Education schedule a priority over all of their other activities.
- See that homework is completed and prayers are mastered.
- Turn to us in difficult times so we can offer pastoral care and prayer

Religious Education Apostolate for Christian Handicapped

(Some of our parishioners participate in this program).

The REACH program helps students:

- Play, work, and pray happily with others.
- Develop a sense of awe, wonder, respect, gratitude and stewardship for God's creation.
- Develop a sense of community and worship.
- Know that God loves, protects and provides for them.
- Recognize that prayer is talking with God.
- Explore in active ways the Bible stories that form the Catholic Christian faith.
- Celebrate their place in God's family.

The REACH program welcomes children who:

- Are at least 6 years of age by September 1st.
- Need a program at a slower pace with simplified lessons and a small student to instructor ratio.
- Want to feel a part of a faith community.
- Want to learn more about God's love.

Children are grouped according to age and/or ability. Each group has a Lead Catechist and each student is assigned a Helper Catechist. Classes are held twice a month on Saturday mornings from September to April. Sessions are from 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. and follow a routine. Each class begins with prayer. Students then work on a craft that relates to the day's lesson. The Lead Catechist then conducts a formal lesson and concludes the lesson with prayer. Finally, all the groups come together for snack time, singing, sharing, and socializing.

One of the special events at REACH happens in December. Families are invited to attend the REACH Advent mass. Students participate in all areas of the mass and prepare a special program. The mass is followed by a reception and a visit from Santa.

The REACH program also provides sacramental preparation for First Reconciliation, First Eucharist, and Confirmation. For more information about the REACH program or to register, call the St. Raphael Religious Education office at (630) 615-7614.
